MERRY BELLS AND EASTER SONGS WABASH TO BUILD

MUSIC HERALDS "CHRIST RISEN" IN THE CHURCHES

Gavest Flowers Adorn Altars at Joyful End of Lent.

FINE CHORAL PROGRAMS

Catholics, Episcopalians and Other Denominations Join in Religious Festival.

Merry bells and Easter carols will ring out over the Capital City tomorrow, and the Christian world will rejoice in com memorating the resurrection of Christ The season of Lent will be over, and in place of sack cloth and ashes, humanity will clothe itself in the gayest of Easter finery and the happiest of smiles. Unless all signs fall the day will be as bright and spring-like as the pretty frocked girl could wish, and most propitious for the display of the finest clusters of vio-lets to be purchased in the local shops. In the churches every preparation has been made to celebrate the feast. Choir-masters and singers have been busy for several weeks arranging a series of Easter carols, and in nearly every church in Washington tomorrow the congregations will hear new music and sermons specially prepared for the day. In the Catholic churches the musical programs will be unusually elaborate.

At St. Matthew's.

At St. Matthew's an augmented choir under the direction of Miss Glennan will sing Haydn's Sixth Mass, with Victor vices in St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Hammerel's "Haec Dies" for male voices at the offertory. Vespers will be sung at 4 o'clock with psalms and "Magnificat" came here from Baltimore less than from Glorza's vespers No. 2. The recessional at both services will be Gounod's has grown in numbers and in popularity. "Praise Ye the Father.

Mass at St. Paul's.

A solemn high mass will be celebrated at St. Paul's, Fifteenth and V Streets, at by the Holy Name choir of male voices dolph with Harry Hall at the organ. Wiegand's mass for male voice will form the chief feature of the program. Miss Ritchie, director of the choir at St. Peter's Church, has prepared an in teresting program. The mass will be sung from Gulimant and Generali with Sir Jules Benedict's "Regina Coeli" at the offertory. In the afternoon Marzo's Vespers will be sung. John Baptista, clarinetist, will assist at the morning service, and in the afternoon Mr. Stani-chis, violinist, and Mr. Bradford, 'cel-list, will play an obligate for miss Bap-

Miss Jennie Bartley will preside at the organ.

Haydn's Imperial Mass, with orcnestral accompaniment, will be sung at Immaculate Conception under the direction of Mrs. Clara Baker Smith with Harry Wheaton Howard at the organ. Hummel's "Alma Virgo" will form the offertory and in the evening Le Jeal's Vespers in its entirety will be sung.

At St. Aloysius.

At St. Aloysius a solemn pontificat mass is to be celebrated at 10:45 in the presence of the papal delegate, Mgr. Falconio. Pizzl's "Imperial Mass" will be sung, and Granier's joyful "Hosanna" is to be given at the offertory. Gounod's "Turfold Ve Portole" will effect the organist. Miss Nellie B. The choir is under the American and Stainer's "Sevenfold Amer" will occupy important places on the pergran.

The choir of St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek, has prepared Schilling's "Christ Our Passover," Holden's "Jubilate," Easter hymns for tomorrow's service. Easter music at Grace Episcopal Crurch will include a festival. "Te Deum," by Frank; "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," and Smith's "Jubilate" in Effat. The choir is under the direction of F. Hewitt. Miss Virgina Erglish is organist.

tomorrow with full orchestral accompaniment. Gordon's "Regina Coell" will be given at the offertory and after mass the choir will sing "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's "Creation."

A string orchestra will assist the choir of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart which will give Gounod's mass to St. Cecelia and Gorza's "Regina Coell" at the offertory. Vespers will be sung at 4:30 o'clock. Both musical services will be under the direction of the organist, Erich Rath.

The enforcement at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, of the recent order of Pope Plus regulating church music will give a different character to the Easter program at this church, which is to be sung by the male choir under the direction of Mr. Wells. The music will be the prescribed Gregorian chant, and will include the mass, "In Festis Solemnibus." The anthem "Regina Coeli will be sung after the offertorium of the day.

At St. Ann's, Tenleytown, the entire mass will be selected from that of Gounod, except the "Agnus Del," which will be from La Hache with Glorza's "Regina Coeli" at the offertory. Miss Katherine Lackey, organist, will direct the program.

Special music will be sung at St. Augustine's when the mass is to be taken from Haydo, No. 3, with Diabelli's "Jubilate Deo" at the offertory.

St. Mary's Church.

At St. Mary's Victor Hammerel's mass will be sung at 10:30 o'clock; at the offertory, Hummel's "Alma Virge," soprand solo by Miss Nellie Corrigan. At vespers, at 4 p. m., Marzo's "First Vespers" will be sung; Giorga's "Regina Coell," and the "O Salutaris" will be an alto solo by Miss Nellie O'Hare, with violin obligato. Mr. Waldecker will preside at the organ and direct.
